

Roles and Responsibilities on CDS Consortium

Partner Brief

Description

The CDS Consortium includes different types of members that play various roles on this research study. Partners HealthCare, Regenstrief Institute, Siemens Medical Solutions, Veterans Health Administration, Kaiser Permanente Center for Health Research, University of Texas School of Health IS, GE Healthcare, NextGen, Mayo Clinic, MVIPA, UMDNJ, and OHSU play critical roles that range from an Observer to the Trial Site. The table below provides description for each of the roles and associated responsibilities.

	Responsibilities	Observer	Collaborator	Trial Site	Innovation Partner * - EHR vendor	Innovation Partner * - Content vendor
1.	Participate in Research Committee meetings	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
2.	Participate in Steering Committee meetings			✓	✓	✓
3.	Host members of Knowledge Management Lifecycle Management team to continue their study on the current knowledge management and CDS activities across the vendor community	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
4.	Explore use of CDS Multilayer Model and tools to create CDS knowledge artifacts			✓	✓	✓
5.	eRoom access		✓	✓	✓	✓
6.	KM Portal - Read Only access	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
7.	KM Portal – Contribute/submit content for publication on Km Portal			✓	✓	✓
8.	Methods, tools, knowledge artifacts, drafts of reports - review, and comment	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
9.	Methods, tools, knowledge artifacts, drafts of reports - participate in the development		✓	✓	✓	✓
10.	CDSC services integration - review, and comment		✓	✓	✓	✓
11.	CDSC services integration – development			✓	✓	✓
12.	Draft of publications – collaborations, access, review, and comment		✓	✓	✓	✓
13.	Draft of publications – authoring			✓	✓	✓
14.	Presentations at conferences – utilize knowledge and artifacts developed by CDSC			✓	✓	✓
15.	Use the CDSC brand/logo for research dissemination purposes	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
16.	Grand permission to CDSC to use the company's brand/logo for research dissemination purposes	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
17.	CDSC services integration – run a pilot or control trial in identified clinic(s)			✓
18.	CDSC services integration – technical support for CDSC services implementation and their consequent maintenance in identified clinic(s)			✓	✓

If you are considering joining the CDS Consortium, please review the table and discuss they your team or company colleagues on which level of involvement and commitment would be the most appropriate. CDS Consortium welcomes new members and will be happy to discuss this further with you. For more information on the CDSC please refer to our website <http://www.partners.org/cird/cdsc/>. If you have any questions, please contact Lana Tsurikova at rtsurikova@partners.org.

* Innovation Partner is an Entity that co-develops and supports CDSC services implementation in its EHR system and/or provides content to the KM Portal.